DELTA FLOAT WINS—Delta Tau Delta fraternity took the first place trophy in the men's division for their float, "You'll Never Walk Alone." The Phi Delta were runners-up with their float based on the song, "The Good Ship Lollipop." Thirty-one floats took part in the annual May Day parade, sponsored by Suky, UK pep organization.

KID'S WINNING FLOAT—The Kappa Delta's won first prize in the women's division for their May Day float based on the song title, "Red Roses for a Blue Lady." Second prize went to Delta Delta Delta sorority for "It's a Blue World." Trophies were presented at Suky's May Day dance Saturday night.

Barbara Baldwin Wins In May Queen Contest

Barbara Baldwin, home economics junior, was crowned May Day Queen at the May Day dance Saturday night. First attendant was Mary Ann Milley, representing Alpha Delta Phi, and second attendant was Jane Bartlett, representing Kappa Alpha Theta.

The float contest was won by Delta Tau Delta in the men's division with a Korean war theme based on the song, "You'll Never Walk Alone," and Kappa Delta in the women's division with "Red Roses for a Blue Lady."

Delta Delta Delta with "It's a Blue World," was runner-up in the women's division. Phi Delta Theta took second place in the men's division with "The Good Ship Lollipop." Trophies were awarded to these groups at the dance.

Thirty-one floats took part in this year's contest, the theme of which was song titles. The high school bands of Elizabethtown and Lexington Dunbar also marched in the parade.

During intermission at the dance, names of 23 new members of Suky, pep organization sponsoring the event, were announced. The new members were admitted on the basis of work done during the past year.

New members are Carey Adams, Jackie Averill, Mildred Correll, Mary Ann Dempsey, Mary Eades, Linda Gibson, Betty Hamilton, Betty Hendricks, Joyce Hoskins, Joyce Jenny, Nancy Lickert, Dave Linkous, Sally Martin, Martha May, Martha Morgan, Betsy Paynter, Debbie Schwartz, Martha Spillman, Don Stewart, Sarah Tabb, Jackie Tinsley, Bill Webb and Anna Mae Wise.

They will be awarded a sweater and a membership key.

Education College Adds New Library

A new departmental library to serve the College of Education has been recently added to the University's library facilities. Dr. Lawrence Thompson, director of UK libraries announced.

Full time operation of the new education library, which will be housed on the third floor of the Maintenance Building, will begin in time for the summer school session. The library will have several reading tables and all of the reserve books now in the Margaret I. King Library.

Mrs. Howard M. Evans, who has worked in the reference department of the King Library the past year, has been selected as the librarian for the education library.

The College of Education in the past has had a curriculum laboratory for education books but has never had a regular library.

Engineer Exams Are To Be Given

The 60 civil engineers who have a chance to advance their ratings by taking tests being given Saturday in Anderson Hall.

High school seniors who receive scholarships work with the highway department as chaperones the summer before they enter college.

Tests are given each year so that they may advance their rating if they desire to do so. As they advance in rating, they also receive a higher salary. The students who are now freshmen take the roadman's exam, the sophomores take the levelman's exam, and the juniors try for the instrument man position.

The levelman's and instrumentation examinations will be given from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturday in Room 209 of Anderson Hall.

Prof. R. E. Shaver, head of the civil engineering department, said that the highway department will also employ a limited number of civil engineers who are not on highway scholarships. Those interested should turn their applications in to Prof. Shaver some time today.

Lamp And Cross Extends Deadline

The deadline for application to Lamp and Cross, senior men's honorary, has been extended until noon Monday, Jim Bradbury, president of the honorary, said today.

Students may file their applications at the Dean of Men's office in the Administration Building. Information that should be included in the application is over-all standing minimum of 1.5, campus activities, and honors.

Concert Band Will Perform At Musicales

The 1953 Sunday Afternoon Musicales will come to a close Sunday afternoon with a program by the UK Concert Band. The performance will be at 4 p.m. in Memorial Coliseum.

Director of the concert group will be Warren Lutz of the UK music faculty. Lutz is well known in Central Kentucky as director of the University's "Marching 100," but this performance will mark his first appearance on the Sunday Afternoon Musicales as director of the Concert Band.

Transcriptions from orchestral literature have been chosen by Lutz for his concert. In announcing the complete program, the director pointed out that these band arrangements have been made available by Mark Hindley, director of bands at the University of Illinois, and Edward Kalb of the American Music Conference.

Earlier this school year the UK band presented a total of six concerts in Louisville, Owensboro, and Bowling Green. The 84-piece organization is made up of both men and women, including music majors as well as those students in other fields of study at UK.

Appearing as vocal soloist with the group will be Patricia Eads Herren, soprano, a senior music major from Lexington.

Sunday's concert is open to the public. This program should not be confused with the annual Department of Music Concert scheduled for Tuesday night in Memorial Coliseum.

Sunday's program follows:
I. Symphony No. 100 in G Major (Military) by Haydn-Hindsley, Adagio Allegro, Allegretto, Minuetto, Presto.

II. Variations on a Theme by Haydn by Brahms-Hindsley.
III. Prelude and Liebestod (Tristan and Isolde) by Wagner-Hindsley, Patricia Herren, Soprano.

IV. Dich, Teure, Halls by Wagner-Halls Patricia Herren, Soprano.

V. Symphony No. 1 in B Flat Major by Kalonikov Hindsley, Scherzo.

Students Appear On WLAP Panel

"Why I Chose Teaching as My Profession" will be the topic discussed by a student panel at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday over radio station WLAP.

Members of the panel are Education majors Charles Dennis, Ruth Stitz, Suzanne Swartz, Ruth Bishop and Harry Banks. Miss Martha Shipman, instructor at University High, will serve as panel leader.

The program is sponsored by the Lexington and Fayette County Classroom Teachers Association.

770 UK Students Gain Recognition At Honors' Day

Dr. S. E. Leland Gives Address At Ceremony

The University recognized 770 outstanding students at the annual Honors Day program Wednesday night in Memorial Coliseum. The students were holders of top scholastic averages, recipients of scholarships, or members of various campus honorary groups.

Principal speaker at the Honors Day ceremony was Dr. Simeon E. Leland, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Northwestern University and former economics professor at UK. He discussed the significance of scholastic awards.

UK Vice-President Leo M. Chamberlain presented the honored groups and individuals to the audience. Other participants included James Hudson of Washington, D. C., president of the Young Men's Christian Association, who gave the invocation, and Molly McCouff of Lexington, senior in the College of Arts and Sciences, who gave the student response.

Some Students Absent
Most of the honored students were present at the program. However, since all persons who have won outstanding awards since the 1952 Honors Day were listed, a few of this number are not in school this semester.

The names of many of the students recognized last night had been announced by individual societies previously, and most of the women students among the honorees were feted recently at the school's annual "Stars in the Night" ceremony.

In addition to all students with an academic standing of 2.3 or higher and those who already have been recognized for achievements, the following were honored as winners of the year's major awards:

College of Arts and Sciences— Jeanne Hubbard, Joseph C. Marek, Eugene D. Wilhoit, Thomas Allen Geyer, Mildred L. Hart, John McGeehan, Ann O'Rourke, Barbara L. Watson, Robert L. Maranville, Yvonne Eaton.

College of Agriculture and Home Economics— Thomas R. Konsler, Elias Adams, Jack Butler, Marion Hayden, Thurman Hopkins, Jack Millikan, Thomas H. Streeter Jr., Joe T. Turpin, Joseph Rust, Joseph Hurt, Beulah Potter.

University Seniors To Elect Officers

Senior class officers in the College of Arts and Sciences will be elected at a meeting of the class at 3 p.m. (University time) Wednesday in Room 111, McVey Hall. At the same time, graduating seniors will receive Commencement directions.

Dean M. M. White, in making the announcement, said that it is important that all seniors attend the meeting.

Photo Clinic To Open In Journalism Building

A Press Photo Clinic will be held May 22 and 23 at the School of Journalism under the auspices of the Kentucky Press Association and the Journalism School.

Clinic sessions conducted by a group of nationally known experts in the field of photography will stress the theme "you can take a good press picture—and you don't need expensive equipment." All phases of photo-journalism will be covered.

The clinic is the first sponsored by the association and the School of Journalism in an effort to build up the use of pictures in newspapers in Kentucky. Victor Portmann, secretary of the KPA, said this week.

Speakers for the school include Robin F. Garland, director of the photo-journalism department of Graphix, Inc., and director in charge of photo education of the National Press Photographers Association; and Fred Inversetti, co-publisher of the Commonwealth, Ripon, Wis.

Sessions in phases of photography will be conducted by Dick Martinson, Sylvia Flash Equipment; Edward Farber and James Cook, Strobe Research; Dan Mohler, General Electric Appliances; Hy Schwartz, Kalart Photo Equipment; William Davis, chief of photography division, Courier-Journal and Times, Louisville, and Dr. Brooks Hamilton, UK.

Anyone interested in press photography and news-picture display in makeup is invited to attend the two-day school. Those who plan to attend should bring their own cameras regardless of make or model.

Prof. Portmann said there would be a special $5 registration fee for UK students and faculty. This fee covers admission to all sessions, including a banquet Friday night at the Phoenix Hotel and an "early bird" breakfast at the Student Union Saturday morning. The fee for other delegates is $14.

Portmann urged students to get their registration forms in early so that the various sections of the clinic could be planned and meal reservations made. Registration blanks may be secured from the Kentucky Press Association Office in the Journalism Building.

DR. ARTHUR A. HAUK
Commencement Speaker

Maine Prexy Will Address UK Graduates

Dr. Arthur A. Hauk, president of the University of Maine, will deliver the principal address at the 86th University of Kentucky commencement exercises on Friday, June 5, in Memorial Coliseum. It was announced Thursday.

This year's UK commencement speaker has been the chief executive of the Maine Institution since 1934 and is currently president of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities.

Speaker at the University's baccalaureate program Sunday, May 31, will be Dr. Daniel A. Poling, editor of the Christian Herald Magazine. Dr. Poling has appeared in Lexington several times and spoke at the dedication of Memorial Coliseum in 1950.

900 To Get Degrees
Approximately 900 persons will be awarded bachelor and graduate degrees at the commencement ceremony, University officials said.

Dr. Hauk is a native of Springfield, Minn., and holds an A.B. degree from Reed College, an M.A. degree from Teachers College at Columbia University and a Ph.D. degree from Columbia University. He was a teacher and principal in elementary and secondary schools in Ohio for several years.

During 1931 the Maine educator was assistant dean at Antioch College, from 1922 to 1928 he was president of Punahou School at Honolulu, Hawaii, from 1929 to 1931 he was assistant to the president of Vassar College and from 1931 until he went to the University of Maine he was dean of Lafayette College.

Is Religious Leader
The UK baccalaureate speaker is one of the world's most noted religious leaders. In addition to his duties as editor of the Christian Herald, he is active in many national and world-wide movements.

Much of Dr. Poling's time since 1943 has been devoted to the planning and construction of the Memorial Chapel of Four Chaplains in Philadelphia, of which he is chaplain.

During the past few years he has been on several overseas missions to Japan, Korea, Okinawa, the Philippines, India, Europe, and England. He presided over and participated in the program of the 11th World's Christian Endeavor Convention held in the summer of 1950 in London.

Full details of the University's commencement and activities, including information on alumni events during this period, will be released later.

Students Asked To Leave Books In 'Y' For WSSF

UK students are asked to contribute to a textbook campaign now in progress by the World Student Service Fund in cooperation with the YW-YMCA by Emma Bell Barnhill, co-chairman of WSSF.

Miss Barnhill said the need for advanced textbooks in the Korean universities is acute, especially in the fields of science, sociology, and English literature. Students are asked to examine their textbooks and to donate those which are no longer in use.

Books may be left in a box in the YW-YMCA office in the Student Union from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m. UK time Monday through Friday and from 9 a.m. until noon on Saturday.

Any group desiring to collect a number of books at their headquarters may do so and then call the Y office for transportation of the books to the Y, Miss Barnhill said.

The WSSF national headquarters has informed the local unit that the United Nations Korean Relief Agency has given them permission to send books to Korean universities. Money has been sent previously for materials which are needed from WSSF, but the demand for English textbooks cannot be supplied.

Suky Suggests UK Freshmen Wear Beanies

Pep Group Says Ruling Would Promote Spirit

By RONNIE BUTLER

Suky wants freshmen to wear beanies. John Faulkner, president of Suky, student pep organization, appeared before the Student Government Association Monday night to ask SGA members to revive the custom of having freshmen wear beanies. He explained that this would "distinguish freshmen from upperclass men and promote school spirit."

Faulkner told members of the Assembly, many of whom had just been sworn in, that under Suky's plan, freshmen would be required to wear beanies for one year and to sit in the card section at all football games.

Although his proposal met with opposition, a motion to allow Suky to procure beanies was passed. The motion was made by Jim Hudson.

Some of the opposition centered on the fact that Korean veterans and other older freshmen might object to wearing beanies.

Some Won't Cooperate
"We've found that some of the older students just don't want to cooperate," Faulkner replied to the opposition. When asked how Suky's plan would be enforced, he answered that all freshmen would probably be required to buy beanies at registration, provided that A. D. Kirwan, dean of men, and Bernie Shively, athletic director, agree.

A penalty for freshmen who refuse to wear beanies is being considered by Suky, Faulkner said. One other feature of the plan, he added, would be to have all freshmen women wear scarves.

After new members of the Assembly, including the president and vice president, Carter Glass and Fred Williams, were sworn in, the following officers were elected. Jim Perry, treasurer, and Lois Smith, secretary.

Outgoing president George Lawson congratulated outgoing SGA members for work done during the past year. He then expressed the hope that "new members will carry on just as did the old members, who are now leaving."

Appoints Committee
The first task of the new SGA

Another committee of three was appointed to investigate the advisability of appropriating funds for the College Night program, an annual affair sponsored by the SGA, the Student Union Board, and the YM-YWCA.

Ann O'Rourke, who made the suggestion, proposed that funds be used to improve the program, which includes a carnival and dance. She also suggested that the affair be held on Sept. 18, during freshman orientation week.

A "coffee chat," consisting of punch and cookies, was held after the meeting, in order to let new and old members acquaint themselves and discuss future tasks and problems of SGA.

U.S. Army Exhibit Shown In Armory

The United States Army Exhibit from the Department of Army will be displayed at the Barker Hall Armory May 20-23. Currently touring the Second Army area, this exhibit consists of electronic panels with three dimensional dioramic scenes depicting the various activities of the U. S. Army. Col. C. M. Mount Jr., professor of military science and tactics, said today.

Featured in this exhibit is a panorama showing how wounded men on the Korean battlefield are evacuated from front line positions to rear areas.

Spectators will have the opportunity to test their marksmanship with the combat rifle through the miracle of electronics. They can actually test their skill with the M-1 by aiming a rifle containing an electric cell that places an electrical impulse on a target 30 feet away.

Should Freshmen Be Forced To Wear Beanies Next Fall?

At the request of Suky, the Student Government Association voted this week to accept the resolution to let Suky go ahead with plans to have freshmen wear beanies next year. John Faulkner, president of Suky, told the Assembly such a plan would raise the school spirit of the University. We doubt the validity of this statement.

Several things should be considered in deciding whether or not freshmen should be forced to wear beanies. How will they accept them? Lot of students would enjoy wearing beanies, but others might be sensitive about it. Instead of producing school spirit in students, they might feel they are being made fun of or being ridiculed.

Faulkner said Suky will plan some type of penalty for freshmen not wearing beanies. If a student doesn't want to wear a beanie, he should not be forced to do so. When a student pledges to a fraternity or sorority, they expect to go through some type of hazing. They ask for it by pledging. But when a student enrolls at UK, he is doing so to get an education and is not asking to be hazed or mocked.

It is apparent that some freshmen will not want to wear beanies, and so how will Suky discriminate between who will wear them and who won't wear them. The line is not easily drawn. There are about 210 Korean veterans on campus now, and there probably will be more next fall. Some of them will be married and have kids. Wearing beanies will surely seem foolish to them.

What about freshman foreign students? Are they going to be forced to wear beanies? This would not make a very good impression on them.

Faulkner said he intends to talk with Bernie Shively and Dean A. D. Kirwan to see if it can be made compulsory that freshmen buy beanies as they go through registration next fall. If the Administration approves the idea of forcing freshmen to wear beanies, then they have no room to criticize the hazing and hell week carried on by fraternities. If UK returns to beanies, then fraternities should replace help week with hell week.

We compliment Suky on their attempt to raise the school spirit at UK, because it is needed. But we disagree with the plan to have freshmen wear beanies. It's true that such an idea if put in effect would set freshmen apart from the other students, but will this raise school spirit?

Until a few years ago, freshmen wore beanies. If beanies raise school spirit, why was the practice discontinued?

There's No Point Fining Freshmen Now For Cars

Harsh action is now being taken against freshmen who have cars here at UK. Such students are being fined ten dollars apiece, but ample warnings were given before the fines were levied.

At the beginning of each semester, freshmen are told they are not allowed to have automobiles while a freshman at the University. The judicial committee of the Student Government Association last month sent letters to freshmen known to have cars here. The letter stated that "by bringing an automobile to the campus while being classified as a freshman you are placed in the position of violating this rule. The judicial committee is recommending to the Dean of Students that any freshman who has an automobile after April 10, 1953, will be dealt with severely." The committee sent this letter last month in hope that freshmen having cars would take them home over the Easter holidays and leave them.

Dean A. D. Kirwan explained this week that the ruling against freshmen having cars is a long standing rule of the University. He said one reason for the ruling is because of the lack of parking places on campus. Freshmen live in the dormitories, he said, and so don't need cars.

From the academic point of view, Dean Kirwan said, it is bad for freshmen to have cars. It is the first time many of them have been away from home and on their own, and cars can be a great temptation for them to forget about the things they came to UK to do, he said.

Dean Kirwan explained that the judicial committee found that many freshmen were disregarding the rule and that something had to be done. They voted a couple of weeks ago to place a ten dollar fine on such students.

We realize that for any organization or structure such as a university to function correctly, rules must be laid down and enforced. But we think it is too late in the year to begin fining freshmen for having cars in their possession. It will not do any good.

It is too near the end of the semester for a student to take his car home, since he wants to keep it to carry his belongings home when school is out. Fear of being fined ten dollars will probably not cause students to take their car home at this time of the semester.

Fining this year's freshmen will have no effect on next year's freshmen. The time to begin enforcing the rule is next fall.

Our Readers Speak: On McCarthy, Rally

Dear Editor:

In both your April 17 and April 24 issues of the Kentucky Kernel you indicate you have been misled by the so called "Liberals" who think McCarthy, Jenner, and Velle are worse people than the leaders of Soviet Russia.

You gave a feature story of Dr. Robert E. Cushman's speech on the campus that "the public is to be blamed in the witch hunts for subversives." I might add that we people here in Washington who really know what the conspiracy is are very happy that the public wants these investigations to continue. The director of the largest public school system in America (New York City) thanked the Jenner committee for its work and stated that he could not have eliminated Communist teachers from his school system if it hadn't been for Senator Jenner's committee.

But to Dr. Cushman it has been "bungled" by the so called politicians. I am afraid if Dr. Cushman had his way the Communists would have taken over the school system a long time ago. Thank goodness he is not in control, and his opinions are the policies in this country.

For your interest (read editorial April 17), Senator McCarthy has never had one hearing on education although your editorial would lead you to believe all he has been investigating are educators. There is no fear in good Americans who are teaching at the present time. For the Communist there is plenty of fear. For as taking courses in universities that discuss Lenin, Marx, and the Communist principles, Senator McCarthy does not criticize it as long as the teacher doesn't say that this system is better than our system. I took several courses at UK dealing with Marx as well as graduate courses here in Washington.

If you fight Communist infiltrations into our educational system, at least one former Kentucky student will.

Dear Editor:

Tonight, Tuesday, May 5, the occupants of Scott Street Barracks were interrupted from their studies at 9 p.m. by the loud sound of a fire engine siren. Immediately, the occupants of the barracks started tossing their belongings from the windows—believing the fire to be in the barracks because of the proximity of the screeching siren.

After thousands of dollars worth of clean clothes had been thrown to the muddy ground and several students had jumped from second floor windows—from which resulted in several minor injuries—it was learned that the cause of alarm was some campaigning students seeking for the coming (SGA) elections.

The purpose of this note to you dear Editor is to try to aid the residents of Scott Street Barracks to remain in a state of tranquility and not be bothered by college pranksters.

Art Majors Of Third Spittoon Pass Inspection With Colors

By QUENTIN ALLEN

"Right shoulders, arms," the command rang out and filled the Armory of the Finer Arts Building in a Southern University. We rhythmically jerked our giant sized brushes in place.

All of the Art majors of the Third Brass Spittoon, three's company A, were nervous.

"Brush, Arms!" Our brushes tapped the floor softly. Only ten minutes before, I had been inspecting my art paraphernalia for final correction. We knew the penalty. Fifteen days in jail looking at modern paintings. Some had returned blinded from the ordeal.

The First Stroker strode nervously past the Spittoon. We knew all about the First Stroker; he was one of those. He liked Chlorophyll Gin, which was started one day when a color-blinded Signmo Moo man dropped his Chlorophyll toothpaste in his gin bottle that he was using as an after shave lotion. Being color-blind, he didn't know the difference. He claimed he got a lift out of gin as his skin absorbed the alcohol. "Never touch the filthy stuff," he was heard to say.

Captain Longnose bellowed a preparatory command. "Prepare for inspection." Not counting Longnose's perennially running probobis, his Yankee accent made him an unpopular officer among the kadets. Because of his affliction he spaced his snorts and sniffs between his words. Often he runs out of bankies for his wayward nose.

As he stepped in front of me I stiffened my body. Longnose went behind me. Something was wiped on my shoulder. I shrank a little in surprise.

"Mr. Kluski," Longnose broadcasted, "your hair is too long! Regulation 48, article g out of the manual on Fingernail Filing, Nose Picking, and Hair Combing states that a kadet must have his hair hanging, en masse, over his ears at least six inches. You're supposed to look like an art student. Where's that worried creative look, the soiled clothes, the distinguishing marks of poverty on your attire that denotes a genius?"

"But, sir, I've got those marks of poorness. No money."

Longnose turned the class over to the First Stroker.

"Be seated, gentlemen." We sat down on a crazy red floor. Before covering the importance of holding your mouth in correct position while making a stroke with a brush, I want each of you to read your assignments."

The class started to read their evaluations concerning the running of horse and street cleaner statue and the Arts Building own version a fervent Praying Mantis.

My time finally arrived. One hundred and twenty-three pages later, I summed up the thesis, saying, "I like the horse statue because the street cleaner smokes Faggets, my brand."

"Mr. Kluski, are you afraid of extensive research?" "No, sir; that's all I could get after you checked all the library books out about the subject." I suspected discrimination. After all, the PRs, or the Painting Reds, were passed with one-sentence papers.

But I was proud to be in the Regimented Paint Pacers of America, of Palette Army IV, under the command of General Rosseau, who had attended both the Western Painters College and the Water Colors University, located on the Painted Desert, where he had graduated with flying colors.

General Rosseau is famous for his deep regard for discipline. He spares none, not even himself. One time, in a parade, when they were moving heavy tanks by the Parade Platform, Rosseau's baby daughter walked in front of a tank. Rosseau could have saved her. Did he? No! He's a military arts man. "I hope the tank isn't discolored," the General was heard to say later.

One student aptly described the General when he said, "Ole iron-jaw is afraid to cry for fear his jaws would rust off."

"Are you really interested in becoming a Second Paint Pacer, Mr. Kluski?" The First Stroker's voice was harsh.

"Yes, sir, I'm interested in being a Second Pacer in Rosseau's Original Tenebrous Clowns."

"What is your professional ambition, Kluski?" "To paint the town red, sir. I realize that we are receiving our training to prepare to paint a brighter world. I want to make people stop and say, 'Dig that crazy red painter!'"

The First Stroker cleared his throat rapidly. "Kluski, what's the difference between a left flank, a right flank, a right face and a left face. Ha, you probably don't know."

"Now, sir, you're wrong. I can describe a flank very easily because of my appreciation of flanks, especially broad flanks. While being an expansive subject, I feel I have covered enough to know the technique utilized in handling flanks in drawing."

"Faces, now, are easy; some faces are just right and the others, not alright, compel a guy to look to the left, where left face is derived."

The bell rang. I ran. Enough is enough.

Groups Can Save Money Building Floats, Displays

By KATHY FRYER

The weather couldn't have been better for the May Day parade Saturday. With three or four exceptions, all the 30 some-odd floats were strong candidates for the trophies. Too bad they didn't have more to go around.

While we're on the subject, why don't all the groups building floats and Homecoming decorations next year get together and order all their crepe paper wholesale or from the manufacturer through the sponsoring organization? It would cut down the cost of those things tremendously.

According to rumors, one fraternity had so much yet to do on their float by Friday night that they almost decided to quit and go as the Unfinished Symphony.

Next To Impossible Department

Fitting any electives into your schedule if you're a commerce major.

Finding anyone who hasn't heard one of the bo-bop jokes ("Dig that crazy—") going around.

Getting in the northwest door of McVey when post office and delivery trucks back up to the platform there.

Figuring out the exam schedule if you've been living on fast time.

Spiked shoe relays have been over several weeks. SGA campaigning has died down. Wonder how long it will take the white painted signs to wear off the sidewalk.

You know it's getting close to June when seniors start reminding their professors that their grades have to be in early . . . you see them carrying black robes out of the book store . . . the placement service does a bigger business than usual . . . the Kernel runs the final exam schedule . . . the rash of spring dances tapers off and hayrides pick up . . . down town stores turn on the air conditioning . . . people sit out on the grass in twos . . . and the baseball season gets going.

People You'd Like To Strangle

Couples who sit out an entire dance and then say they didn't have any fun.

Professors who say, "To me you're a C student." Yourself when you put off studying for a test until 12 o'clock the night before.

Confucius say: bald man who go to beach come back with baked bean.

According to the grapevine the higher-ups want to revive the old custom of freshmen beanies, and they have asked Suky to sponsor it. The idea has something to do with increasing "school spirit," we've been told.

Hmmmm, may be. If the beanies are worn with the feeling of "look, I'm a UK student now" it might work. But if they're going to mean "I'm a lovely little greenie who doesn't know from nothing," they will rouse school spirit like branding cattle makes them love the ranch.

There's Nothing Like:

The feeling of relief after finishing a test you've worried about for a week.

Realizing you can stay in bed an extra half hour.

Finding the set of notes you'd given up for lost two months ago.

Idea for a publicity shot: line up a campus beauty queen in front of the little building between the Mining Lab and the Engineering Building by the sign that says "High Voltage."

OPTOMETRY IN THREE YEARS, IF YOU HAVE SIXTY L. A. CREDITS

In three college years, you can prepare for the attractive profession of optometry, if you have a minimum of sixty required Liberal Arts credits.

There is a shortage of optometrists in many States. Eighty per cent of the Nation's millions depend upon the Doctor of Optometry and his professional skill in conserving vision.

The optometrist possesses the dignity of being a professional man. He renders a service essential to the health and well-being of his community. Substantial financial rewards are obtainable almost from the beginning of his practice. Optometry is especially attractive to women.

The U. S. Department of Defense and Selective Service grant optometry students the same consideration accorded medical students.

Chicago College of Optometry, nationally accredited, is located in the heart of the world's greatest center for teaching in the healing arts. It is famous for its eye clinic. A building program is in progress. Dormitory accommodations, apartments and other facilities are available on a large campus.

For catalog and other literature, address Registrar, Chicago College of Optometry, 2303 No. Clark St., Chicago 14, Ill.

Bill Evans, Education junior, has a 2.47 standing. He has a letter in basketball, baseball, and tennis. He is president of the Physical Education Majors Club and was selected as the outstanding junior Air ROTC student.

Kenneth McGee, 2.68 standing, is a junior in Commerce. He is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, Phi Eta Sigma, Arnold Air Society, and president of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He is a former member of Keys and Lances.

Bill Douglas, Arts and Science junior, has a 2.67 standing. He is a member of Scabbard and Blade, Arnold Air Society, president of the Patterson Library Society, president of the Debator's Club, president of Tau Kappa Alpha, and treasurer of Lances. He was a Kentucky Rhodes Scholar representative and former treasurer of Keys.

Stewart Carpenter, 2.5 standing, is an Arts and Science senior. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Band, Student Union Board and president of Phi Eta Sigma.

Law Senior Elected
Charles Carnes, a senior in Law, has a 2.1 standing. He is a member of Phi Delta Phi, and editor of the Law Journal. He has been first in his class in the college of Law for three years.

Merrill McCord, 2.7 standing, is an Arts and Science senior. He is editor of the Kentucky Kernel and former news editor. He is a member of Scabbard and Blade, Phi Beta Kappa, president of the Henry Watterson Press Club, Distinguished Military Student, and on the Student Board of Publications. He has been awarded a $2,000 fellowship to Stanford and was named the outstanding senior member of the ROTC Signal Corps.

The purpose of ODK is to recognize men who have attained a high standard of leadership and scholarship. Prospective members must have a 2.0 overall standing and must be a junior or senior. Admission is by invitation.

ODK recognizes and encourages achievement in scholarship, athletics, social and religious affairs, publications, speech, music, and dramatic arts. Prospective members must obtain points in these fields for admission.

Summer Training Explained By AF

Col. Edward G. Davis, professor of air science and tactics, said this week that 129 UK Air Force ROTC cadets will attend a four-week training program at five Air Force bases designated to conduct the AFOTC Summer Encampment Program.

The primary emphasis of the training program will be upon aircraft of the USAF. Each cadet will receive 20 hours of orientation flights to better understand the mission of the aircraft and its related problems.

Each cadet will be orientated in the operation of an air base and the part he will play after he has been commissioned a second lieutenant. Development of leadership qualities as well as training in military courtesy, discipline, and customs of the service will also be stressed.

Col. Davis said the bases to be attended by UK cadets are Craig AFB, Selma, Ala., 20 cadets; Keesler AFB, Biloxi, Miss., 40 cadets; Greenville AFB, Greenville, Miss., 36 cadets; Maxwell AFB, Montgomery, Ala., 19 cadets; and Alexandria AFB, La., 14 cadets.

Letter Written To Grads

The following letter is addressed to graduating seniors by Miss Helen King, secretary of the Alumni Association, concerning membership in the Alumni Association.

"As has been previously announced, the University of Kentucky Alumni Association is granting one year's free membership in the Association to each member of the 1953 January, June, and August graduating class.

"We are happy to welcome you into active membership in the Association, and assure you that you will receive all the privileges of active membership, including a subscription to the Kentucky Kernel, Kentucky Almanac, athletic ticket priorities and voting privileges.

"The University of Kentucky Board of Trustees has made these free memberships possible through the granting to the Alumni Association of 50 cents per capita from the Student Activities fees.

"It is imperative that we have the correct address of each graduating senior before you leave the campus, so that your membership cards and other information may be mailed to you.

"Football ticket priorities are available to all active members of the Alumni Association between June 1 and June 30, so you would be wise to make your application for season tickets, if you desire them before you leave the campus. If you wish to purchase individual game seats, that priority closes July 10 for all active alumni. Note and take advantage of these dates.

Seniors are urged to fill in application blanks that have been mailed to them and return them to Room 124, Student Union, before graduation.

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke? You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco. ONCE upon a time a huge, ferocious lion escaped from a zoo that adjoined a small college. For days and days, this many beast terrorized students and faculty members alike by growling at them from dark places. Finally, one afternoon, word reached the Dean that one of the students had killed the lion.

The Dean was delighted, and sent for the brave student. Soon, Charlie Jones, a 112-pound Freshman, was standing in front of him.

"Did you kill the lion?" the Dean asked incredulously.

"Sure did," said Charlie. "There I was, walking to class. It was pretty hot, but I didn't mind because I was wearing a cool, comfortable Van Heusen Van Dual Shirt with short sleeves. That smart collar looked swell with my school tie. And imagine, I only paid $3.95 for this swell shirt!"

"But what about the lion?" asked the Dean.

"Well, all of a sudden," continued Charlie, "this fugitive from a circus leaps out from behind a tree and growls at me. This was no spot to be wearing a dress shirt, I decided, so I whipped off my tie, opened my collar, and presto! my Van Dual became the best-looking, most comfortable sport shirt on campus. And I was ready for action."

"Yes," said the Dean.

"So I showed my trusty right arm down his throat, grabbed his tail ... and pulled him inside out!"

"My word!" said the Dean.

"Lefty" Jones graduated Cum Laude last term.

There's Time For Some Relaxation Even With Exams Approaching

By ANN O'MARK

Just seven more Monday, Wednesday, Friday classes and only four more Tuesday, Thursday classes. The time has come to begin reading the book and getting the semester's assignments handed in. Then in three weeks, there will be a whole summer to spend sleeping, eating and loafing.

But before the books are tackled, there will be a little time for relaxation. The Kappa's are climaxing the year with a spring formal dance at the Lexington Country Club tonight. The dance will begin at 8 p.m. with Dave Parry and his orchestra providing the musical entertainment.

The Alpha Sig's are going to Sleepy Hollow this afternoon. They will leave at 6 p.m. for their hayride.

Beach Parties Planned

With the hopes of getting a good suntan and maybe a little swimming in the SAE's, Delta's, ATO's, Phi Sigma Sigma's and Triangles are planning beach parties Saturday afternoon. The SAE's will leave for Cifton at 3 p.m. The Delta's will leave at 4 p.m.; the ATO's at 3 p.m. and the Phi Sigma Sigma's at 2 p.m.

The Sigma Nu's are going to have a picnic at Danada Farm Saturday afternoon. The Phi Delta's will leave at 1:30 p.m. on a picnic at Natural Bridge.

To Have House Party

The Sig Ep's are having a house party tomorrow. The doors will open at 8 p.m. The Alpha Gamma's will have a barbecue at their house Saturday. The barbecue will take place at 5:30 p.m. Alpha Delta Pi will celebrate their founder's day at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Sunday the Phi Tau's will have a picnic at Natural Bridge. The ADP's are having a picnic in honor of the seniors at 2 p.m. They will go to Moreland's on the lake. The Kappa's will have a breakfast at Capps' Coach House in honor of their seniors, too.

KD's To Honor Seniors

The Kappa Sig's will have their steak fry at Herrington Lake Sunday. They will leave at 1 p.m. Thursday the KD's will have a picnic in honor of the seniors at Castlewood. Their picnic will begin at 5 p.m.

The Chi Omega's will hold their spring rush party at the house from 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday. They had a luncheon in honor of their seniors Monday afternoon.

Congratulations are in order for Barbara Baldwin and Ann Smith. Barbara was chosen May queen last Saturday and Ann was chosen Band Sponsor for the coming year.

Phi Delta Officers Named

New officers of Phi Delta Theta are Ray Tucker, president; Alex Huetelet, vice-president; James Boyle, secretary; Henry Bennett, treasurer; and Leslie Morris, IFC representative. Charlotte Hill, Louisville, was pledged to Alpha Gamma Delta sorority Wednesday.

Just in case anyone is wondering, the Delta Chi has moved into a new home. Their new address is 182 Woodland Ave. They are busy now painting and decorating their house.

Has anyone ever heard that true loves are like ghosts? Everyone talks about them, but no one has ever seen them. Well, ideas aren't responsible for the people who hold them.

Ag Seniors Asked To Meet Monday

'Creature' You Saw Was Mining Student

If you've been thinking UK had callers from Mars last week, you'll be relieved to know that those "creatures" you saw were only mining students engaged in part of their mine rescue and first aid treatment program. Sixteen students were being conditioned for mine rescue work.

What you thought were space head gear units were really oxygen breathing apparatus that serve to protect men from bad air while doing mine rescue work.

These oxygen apparatus weigh 40 pounds and will hold up two hours for a man actively engaged in rescue work.

Radio Station Plans Shows During Spring

By LYNN SLEETH

WBKY, the University Radio Station, is busy with new spring programming.

The first of these new shows starting in June, will be brought by the National Association of Educational Broadcasters. A complete series of these New International Cultural Exchange Programs are obtained direct from France. The three WBKY will present are "Comedie Francaise," "Life and Works of Victor Hugo," and "Contemporary French Music." They will be broadcast at 7 p.m. June 3, 4, and 5.

The UK Roundtable which is broadcast over WHAS at 10 a.m. Sunday and over WBKY on Monday nights has been handling timely subjects. Last week birth control was the topic. This Sunday a discussion will be presented on the exemplary country of Uganda, Africa. Mr. William Kajubi from that part of Africa will be interviewed.

Don Dyer, radio arts major, has prepared a series of four programs based on the Foreign Language Conference. The programs will be released at 9 p.m. Wednesday, and will be broadcast Wednesday and Friday for two successive weeks.

WBKY has been experimenting on short wave channels with the idea of taping and broadcasting the news as viewed by the news agencies throughout the world, including Radio Moscow. When these broadcasts are available a political scientist will comment on slants from the news from abroad.

The new program schedules for May and June are available now at the Radio Studios in McVey Hall.

Dr. Barbour will accompany the class of seven on the trip, the purpose of which is to study plant and animal species on Big Black Mountain. A number of species are to be found at the top of the mountain which do not exist in the rest of the state.

The mountain is 4,150 feet high, which is the highest point in the state. It is located in Harlan County about half way between Lynch, Ky., and Appalachia, Va., with its peak on the Kentucky side.

Students Might Do Well To Vary Their Parties

By DON YOUNG JR.

Why doesn't someone start a Communist party on the UK campus?

We think recruits could be secured for such a project for the asking.

But before Senator McCarthy leaves off investigating the subversive activities of left-handed doormen and starts on us, let us qualify our suggestion.

Get up a party with a Red theme. Let everyone come as they think all fellow travelers and semi-reds, pinks, would attend a party. Let's show some college calibre initiative.

Do you know what an Apache and a Hobo party is? They're what more than 50 per cent of the parties given at UK are. Mayhap this is a scanty definition, but nevertheless it's true.

Manuals devoted to different types of parties list more than 112 separate and distinct kinds of parties. These run from 'International Parties'—and this is one of the most colorful held at the University—to the Arkansas variety, where everyone sits around a bonfire and toasts their feet.

One suggestion comes to us for a party from down South. There, every third year, a grand "Have a Holiday" party is held. Then everyone dresses as a holiday, with participants divided into four sections, and each section assigned a quarter-year for their costume.

That doesn't mean this is the most terrific idea for a party, but one doesn't have a chance to tire of the same old parties, given year after year. It would not be at all difficult to schedule parties for alternating years, thus giving everyone a chance to attend two of the same parties in four years, instead of four identical parties per college career.

Personally, and we do mean personally, we would love to see a Cleopatra party held at the University. Bet it could get a $600 guarantee.

Seventh Annual 'Blue-White' Game Scheduled For Tonight

By DICK PURKINS

Two hand-picked squads, which Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant feels will be evenly matched, will clash tonight in the seventh annual Blue-White intrasquad game at Stoll Field.

The affair, beginning at 8:30 (DST), or 7:30 (CST), is being played this year for the benefit of the K Club, which is trying to raise enough money to build a club house for their organization. The club house would be a sort of fraternity house for UK letter winners.

Bryant Will Be Spectator

Coach Bryant will watch this contest from a spectator's view as the Blue team has been turned over to Clarence "Buckshot" Underwood, with Phil Cutchin and Jerry Clairborne as his aides. Eral Allen will head coach the Whites with Jim Owens and Pat James serving as his assistants.

The Blue squad will be led by one of the Wildcat Co-Captains, Tommy Adkins. The rest of the Blue group includes: ENDS — Al Zampino, Gayle Rouse, Jim Proffitt, Sam Sartain, and Charles Wilson; TACKLES — Jerry Mingis, Bill Wheeler, Arvon Blvin, Twyman Patterson, and George Fuller; GUARDS—John Bailey, Joe Koch, Jack Kasson, Ken Cobb, Duke Curnette, and Tony Chicino; CENTERS — Adkins, Ken White, and Jess Cotton; QUARTERBACKS — Bob Hardy and Herb Hunt; HALFBACKS — Loecky Brown, Don Jirschele, Max Mason, Joe Platt, and Steve Meilinger; and FULLBACKS — Ralph Malone, Hayden Hooper, and Jack Hanley.

Correll To Lead Whites

The White forces, headed by the other Cat Co-Captain, Ray Correll, will field: ENDS—Howard Schmelberger, Larry "Dude" Hennessy; Bob Bassitt, Harry Kirk, Jerry Beatty, and Harold Morgan; TACKLES — Jack Butler, Jim Schenk, Ken Lutz, and Jim Burrus; GUARDS — Correll, Neil Lowery, Jack Bundy, Joe Stuart, and Clarke Ratcliffe; CENTERS—Leo Strange, and Bill Simpkins; QUARTERBACKS—Dick Shatto, Dick Rushing, and Miles Willard; HALFBACKS—Bradley Mills, Dick Moloney, Bob Phillips, Roger Harrington, Frank Pettitt, and Jim Mayo; and FULLBACKS — Tom Fillion, Don Bowman, and Ken Williams.

Halfbacks Dick Mitchell and Ray Callahan, guard Clarence Mitchell, and center O. E. Philpot will miss the contest due to injuries. Dick Mitchell, a junior letterman, was a leading contender for one of the starting halfback berths.

Newcomers Possible Starters

Ken Lutz, Loecky Brown, Frank Pettitt, Don Bowman and Ken Williams, among the newcomers, appear to have better than even chances of crashing the starting lineups. However, Bowman and Williams both cannot start, since they both are listed as White fullbacks and also face the unenviable task of rooting Tom Fillion out of that job.

The recent work of "Dude" Hennessy, Neil Lowery, Bob Hardy, Bradley Mills, Williams and Bowman has brought praise from the coaches, not to mention such steady performers as Proffitt, Bailey, Correll, Adkins and Meilinger.

Since the Blue-White game was originated in 1946, the White teams have been victorious in six out of ten games with one game ending in a 7-7 tie. Four games were played in 1949 throughout the state.

A summary of past results: 1946—Blues 7, Whites 0
1947—Whites 7, Blues 0
1948—Whites 7, Blues 7
1949—Whites 26, Blues 6 (at Paintsville); Blues 10, Whites 13 (at Madisonville); Whites 60, Blues 0 (at Newport); Whites 21, Blues 20 (at Stoll Field)

1950—Blues 27, Whites 13
1951—Whites 21, Blues 6
1952—Whites 28, Blues 13

Ken Kuhn, UK public relations head, announced that admission to the game would be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for students. ID cards will not be good for this battle since the proceeds will go to the K Club building fund.

The probable starting lineups:

Blues		Whites
Zampino (185)	LT	Hennessy (170)	or Kirk

Tracksters Win Finale; Take Part In SEC Meet

Rebounding from their first defeat of the track season at the hands of Vanderbilt, UK tracksters took 12 first places as they downed Western, 91-40, in their last home meet before entering the SEC meet which is to be held in Birmingham, Ala., this week-end.

Three graduating UK track seniors turned in outstanding performances as the Cats ended the season with a 4-1 record. Captain Jay Wallace, Doug Adamson and George Rishell each grabbed first places and helped set three new records in the mile relay.

The relay time of 3:25.1 bettered the UK team record set by Meilhaus, Genito, Bell and Kirchner in 1948. Their time was 3:28. Also broken was an old Stoll field mark of 3:27.3 set by Vanderbilt in last year's meet and the UK-Western meet record set in 1951.

Rishell ran the 440-yard dash in the record breaking time of :50.8. The old record was :51.0 set in 1950. Top scoring honors were shared by Western's Bob Simpson and Kentucky's Don Weaver each tallying 13 points. Simpson took firsts in the 100 and 220-yard dashes and a second in the broad jump. Weaver scored firsts in shot put, javelin and a second in the discus. Lynn Cole, record-holder in the state high school high jump took third place honors.

Kentucky's other firsts came from Jack Kasson in the discus, Dick Maloney in the pole vault, Jess Curry in the broad jump, Dick Shatto in high hurdles, Frank Scott

Tennis Clinic Being Held Here Today

Two of the most outstanding tennis players of the Cincinnati and Ohio Valley region will stage an exhibition match at 4 p.m. (CDT) today at UK in connection with Lexington's first formal tennis clinic.

They are Charles Thomas Jr., Hyde Park Tennis Club's top net artist, and Curt Beigman, former star of Northwestern University's tennis team. Both players now live in Cincinnati.

The clinic is being sponsored by the University of Kentucky and the Blue Grass Tennis Club and is being conducted on the UK all-weather courts behind Memorial Coliseum.

Co-operating with the UK Department of Physical Education and the local tennis club is staging the event, is Dr. H. H. Downing, veteran Kentucky tennis coach. Dr. Downing is serving as chief adviser for the venture.

The two-day affair which began yesterday and will continue through this afternoon, was arranged both for local persons who already play tennis and for young people and children who are interested in learning to play. Wade emphasized that the entire event is free and that parents in this area are invited to bring their children for instructions.

Athletes representing eight University of Kentucky spring and winter sports teams will be feted by the Fayette County Alumni Association of the University in a public sports banquet on May 28.

The inaugural of the spring sports banquet is intended to honor participants in UK sports other than football and basketball, Mrs. Hampton Adams, president of the alumni chapter, said. However, since the annual basketball banquet was not held this year, the cage team also will be invited to the affair slated for the Bowling Springs Country Club in Lexington.

Mrs. Adams emphasized that the banquet is open to the general public, as well as to UK alumni. Tickets may be purchased now from members of the board of directors of the alumni group and will be available starting May 25 at Graves-Cox clothing store in Lexington.

Letterman in baseball, track, swimming, fencing, tennis and golf will be announced and presented with their K sweaters by their respective coaches. Also, awards will go to members of the Pershing Rifles squad and the Wildcat basketballers will be publicly cited for their performances in several public intrasquad games during the past winter while suspended from inter-collegiate competition.

Basketball Coach Adolph Rupp will be the main speaker on the program. University President Herman L. Donovan also will extend greetings and All-American cager Cliff Hagan is to deliver the invocation.

Baseballers Close Season With Loss

By JOHN RYANS

The University of Kentucky Wildcats baseball team finished their season by breaking even in their last two contests. Saturday they won an easy 16-0 victory over the Transylvania Pioneers on the Stoll Field diamond, while on Tuesday they lost a close 5-4 decision to the Eastern Maroons at Richmond. This brought the Wildcats to a 7-11 record for the season. However, after getting off to a poor start for the season, the Wildcats won seven out of their last eleven games.

In the Eastern game the Wildcats were leading by a score of 4-2 going into the bottom of the ninth, when the Maroons combined four bases on balls and a single to score three runs. It marked the second victory of the season for the Eastern crew. The Wildcats, last month the Maroons beat the Wildcats by a score of 11-10 in a ten-inning thriller at Stoll Field.

Cats Chase Eastern Hurler
The Wildcats apparently had the game won in the top of the eighth when they chased Ronnie Pellagrini, Maroon starter, with a three run uprising. He was relieved by Don Richardson who received credit for the victory.

Hugh Coy started on the mound for the Wildcats. He was relieved by Phil Grawemeyer, who was charged with the loss. Jess Curry relieved Grawemeyer in the ninth and finished the game for the Cats. Miles Willard with three hits and Charlie Anderson with two hits paced the Wildcat hitters.

Saturday afternoon the Cats really poured on the Trans Pioneers, as they won their most decisive victory of the season by a score of 16-0. The Wildcats used five pitchers in the contest as they toyed with the Pioneers.

Hugh Coy started on the mound for the Wildcats and pitched the first four innings. He was relieved by Jim Day, who pitched the fifth and sixth innings for the Cats and received credit for the victory. His second of the year against the same number of losses, Don House, Herb Hunt, and Phil Grawemeyer each pitched an inning to finish the game.

Doug Lawhorn, Harry Jones, Miles Willard, and Billy Evans paced the Wildcats 16 hit attack. Willard hit safely in three of his four official appearances at the plate, as well as connecting for his third homer of the year. Lawhorn had four hits in five trips to the plate, Jones had three hits in five trips, and Evans had two for four including scoring four runs himself.

This year's Blue-White game will mark the seventh annual affair but hopes have been entertained that it might have been replaced by the first annual Alumni game.

A suggestion by Chuck Tilley, former Kernel sports editor, started an investigation into the possibilities that such a contest could replace the inter-squad tussel and add more interest to the game which climaxes the spring grid drills.

This fall, the plan was offered to Mr. Bernie Moore, high mogul of the SEC, and was promptly vetoed. The grounds on which it was turned down, aren't too clear but we hope sincerely that Mr. Moore will see the absurdity of the ruling and maybe a law could be changed to allow some of the all-time grid greats to again exhibit their talents for the many followers of UK football and athletics.

There is one bright ray emanating from the Coliseum these days from the office of Harry Lancaster, UK baseball coach.

As he looks over the record for this year, the ray is dimmed a bit. The squad won only seven games and lost 11. The flame burns brighter as Mr. Lancaster notices that only three members of this year's squad will not be around next season when the horse hide is again taken out of mothballs.

Frank Ramsey, All-SEC gardner for the past two seasons and the dual out combination of Harry and Larry Jones are the only seniors on this squad.

In the hitting department, Ramsey was the top man with a .324 mark for the season, followed closely by third sacker, Miles Willard who wound up only a few hundredths of a percentage point behind Ramsey with a .323 average. Willard is only a junior with one more year of eligibility.

In the pitching department, the picture for the future is the brightest. The winningest pitchers were three freshmen, Phil Grawemeyer, two wins and two losses; Jess Curry, two wins and three losses, and Hugh Coy, also a freshman who pitched the most innings on the squad, 54, and wound up with a two and four record.

All points taken into consideration, next year's team should be 100 percent improved and a far cry from a 7-12 record come next May.

Credit for the track Decathlon, the first of its kind here at UK, goes to George Hinds, track student manager. Being a track enthusiast, Hinds figured that the boys would like a little competition from the squad in all fields so that the best athlete could be picked.

The plan calls for each member of the squad taking part in not only his usual event, but also nine others which will no doubt seem strange to some of the boys.

Track enthusiasts from all over the Bluegrass area will be interested in this innovation as an attempt is made to better the standing of track in the interest of sports fans in this part of the country.

A hint to the sports fan who wishes to attend the Blue-White grid contest tonight and also keep abreast of the Rocky Marciano-Joe Walcott championship fight tonight. Why not take along a portable radio and listen to the broadcast of the fight, which will be carried over station WLAP, while watching the football game?

Our orchid this week goes to the K-Club for their attempt, in reorganization, to increase the relationships between the athletes and the student body.

In the past, students have read about big name athletes in the newspapers and seen their pictures but for some reason the big name stars remained on a plane above the average student.

This may be explained by either their ability to remain aloof as a result of their newspaper clippings or that there just hasn't been any opportunity for them to get acquainted. We prefer to believe the latter.

Students follow college sports because they have a feeling of pride in the team because they attend the same school with the participation athletes, not because they know the stars personally. This association should be increased on a personal basis but, how, we don't know.

We just hope that the "Letter-Winners" can figure out and carry out some method.

TRIPLE THREAT MAN!

The Brains of the Team

Teamwork can work miracles. In a football game the man who sparks these miracles is the quarterback. He's the man who calls the signals. There's a man who calls the signals for an Air Force flying team, too! They call him an Aircraft Observer.

Do YOU have what it takes to become an Aircraft Observer? It isn't easy. It's tough. You have to be a MAN to qualify as an Aircraft Observer. But when you are one, brother, you're SOMEBODY! The success or failure of a mission involving over a million dollars worth of flight equipment depends on you.

THE AIRCRAFT OBSERVER IS THE SOMEBODY WHO:

As Bombardment Officer, is number one man on a bombing run, the man who controls the plane in the target area! As Navigation Officer, is the pilot's guiding hand on every flight!

As Radar Officer, is master of a new science and operator of the device that sees beyond human sight!

As Aircraft Performance Engineer Officer, is the one who "keeps the plane flying", the man who knows his plane inside and out, who keeps it fit for the skies and sees that it stays there!

If YOU can accept a challenge like this, you'll take your place beside the best—you'll find your future in the clouds!

TO BE QUALIFIED you must be single, a citizen, between 19 and 26½ years old, have had at least 2 years of college and be in tip top physical shape. If this describes you, then YOU, too, can qualify. Today!

HERE'S WHAT YOU'LL GET! The world's best training. Good food and plenty of it. Uniforms, flight clothes, equipment. Medical and dental care. Free insurance. Flight training in Uncle Sam's greatest aircraft.

AND THEN, AFTER GRADUATION, you'll win your silver wings, and earn more than $5000 a year as an Air Force Lieutenant. You'll enjoy an adventurous, exciting career with a hand-picked crew of real men. You'll be THE BRAINS OF THE TEAM, A TRIPLE THREAT MAN... as a Bombardment Officer, as a Navigation Officer, as a Radar Officer, as an Aircraft Performance Engineer.
